

The Research and Education Centers have remained open during this past year. Current policy requires that REC employees test in accordance with the University schedule, which requires a test every 14 days. Please follow all other guidelines required by your specific REC.